

Office of Human Capital Management

External Training Review and Approval Process

External training is training that is typically offered by a vendor or an entity other than NASA at an off-site location (e.g., workshops, training, conferences, symposiums, etc.) and requested by an individual employee.

When taking external training, submission of a SATERN SF-182 Request for External Training is required prior to registering and attending training.

